

I am writing to urge the FCC not to weaken the rules governing media ownership. It is crucial in a democracy that citizens have access to unbiased news and programming. This is already being compromised.